

Constitution of dubbel spark taekwondo klubb

Article I

Name

Section I: The name of this organization is dubbel spark taekwondo klubb

Article II

Aims and objectives

1. To Educate and Train the youth in Taekwondo for domestic and international competitions.
2. To teach the youth to be brave, fearless and above all very composed to live a strong and healthy life style.
3. To teach the people the basics of Taekwondo and self-defense.
4. To develop the existing skills and abilities of people by promoting taekwondo.
5. To provide safe environment and friendly atmosphere so that people may develop in both a physical and psychological capacity.

Article III

Membership

Membership is open to all who like to train and know the basic skills of taekwondo. No prior experience is necessary.

Article IV

Officers

Officers consist of President, Vice President, Secretary and a Public Relations Chair.

Duties / Responsibility

President

1. The president's duties would consist of opening, closing, and presiding over general and officer meetings.
2. He would also prepare meeting agendas, enforce all bylaws and would be the official representative of the Taekwondo Club at all meetings.

The Vice President

1. The vice president would have the same responsibilities as the president in the absence of the president.

The Secretary

1. He/she would be responsible for attendance of all meetings and in the case of a website for the organization, would run the Taekwondo club website.
2. He/she will also type any attendance list, member email list, or any other document necessary to the club, and would also inform the club members of any decisions made at an officers meeting that would affect the rest of the club.

The Public Relation Officer

1. The public relations chair would be responsible for the recruitment of new members and all official communication of the club.

Article V

Advisor

The Taekwondo Club organization will have Morgan Nygård. He is very knowledgeable and experienced, dynamism, enthusiasm and love for the Taekwondo sports is beyond understanding. He is an international Taekwondo WT referee, a member of the Norwegian Martial Arts Federation and an instructor and coach at Steigen Taekwondo in Norway. A former President of Norway Taekwondo Federation.

Article VI

Meetings

The President and Vice President have the authority to schedule, hold and close meetings. General meetings will be twice a year (ones every 6 months)

Article VII

Amendments

Amendments to the constitution will be proposed either by the officers as unanimous vote.

Adopted by consensus on the 27th of September, 2021